

2013 Labor Movement Panel Discussion, 10/24/2013

HUCTW Members!

Please join us next Wednesday for the final HUCTW panel discussion

“What’s Next for the U.S. Labor Movement?”

After several decades of declining membership, American unions, workers, and organizers are exploring new approaches and developing new structures for advancing workplace democracy. At this discussion, academics and practitioners comment on the changing face of American labor. All are welcome.

Panelists: Dorothy Sue Cobble, Professor, Dept. of Labor Studies and Employment Relations, and Dept. of History, Rutgers University

Mark Erlich, Executive Secretary-Treasurer, New England Regional Council of Carpenters (NERCC)

Kris Rondeau, Organizer, American Federation of State, County, and Municipal Employees (AFSCME)

Date: Wednesday, October 30, 2013

Time: 3:15 pm - 4:30 pm

Location: Sackler Museum
485 Broadway, Cambridge

Please note that the University has approved attendance at this event as a paid work time activity for HUCTW members.

This event is part of the HUCTW 25th Anniversary Panel Series. More details on the HUCTW website: www.huctw.org
HUCTW: Harvard Union of Clerical and Technical Workers | Tel: 617-661-8289 | Email: huctw.info@huctw.org

Please join us Wednesday, October 30 @ 3:15 at the Sackler Museum for this timely panel discussion: “What’s Next for the U.S. Labor Movement?” More details (including map to Sackler) on PDF flyer: http://www.huctw.org/25/huctw\_labor\_panel\_flyer.pdf

Please note that the University has approved attendance at this event as a paid work time activity for HUCTW members.